

Drew Marine

Len R. Gelosa
President and Chief Executive Officer

February 1, 2011

Drew Marine is a global supplier to the Maritime Industry serving customers in 65 different countries. In 2010, we successfully relocated our world headquarters to Whippany, New Jersey in Hanover Township.

Our choice of Hanover Township was driven by the rich sources of talented employees within easy commuting distance, close proximity to Newark Airport, accessibility to New York City via car, bus, or train, and a wide choice of supporting businesses including restaurants and hotels.

We were extremely pleased with the business friendly attitude of Hanover Township. From the Mayor to the various township officials, we encountered professionals with a positive "get it done" attitude as we planned and executed the build out of our new offices.

I would highly recommend Hanover Township to anyone seeking a home for their business.

Sincerely,
